Marian Berg

Marian Berg is a professional artist & educator. Marian has been creating art since childhood & has worked in a variety of mediums including painting, pastels, glass & ceramics. Marian studied at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Columbia College, Northeastern Illinois University & the University of New Mexico. Her educational background includes an MA in Art Education & she is licensed to teach art for grades K through 12. Marian fell in love with the dramatic New Mexican landscape & has made this area her home for 30 years. Because of her love of the outdoors, she does plein air painting at every opportunity. She enjoys doing portraiture as well & focuses on expressing the unique qualities of her subjects.

Marian Berg

Marian is also a registered nurse & traveled to Haiti in 2010 where she volunteered with a medical relief team after that country's devastating earthquake. In addition to her work with the medical team, she also held impromptu art classes with Haitian children. Marian firmly believes that the arts play an essential role in the social, emotional & mental development of children; and that the act of making art is a healing & life affirming process for all ages. Marian maintains her studio in Albuquerque & teaches in the New Mexico Art League.
