

Carol Carpenter

Watercolor

Dating from the 1930's Carol's grandmother started an artistic lineage that continues through the third generation. Carol has shown her watercolors professionally for over 20 years in New Mexico. New Mexico is the base on which she draws her inspiration. "Carol captures the light & the organic nature of the Southwestern Adobes" (Albuquerque Journal, June 1989).

Carol exhibits at the "Weems Artfest (1997 Commemorative Poster); the "New Mexico Arts & Crafts Fair" (1989 Show Poster); voted "Peoples Choice Award" for 2000 in the "New Mexico State Fair Professional Exhibit" (1982-2000). She also exhibited at the Museum of the Southwest (Midland TX). Carol was selected for the magazine cover & Wine Tasting poster for KNME, Public Television station. Her work is displayed in numerous collections across the United States.

Carol Carpenter