

Virginia Cobos Fritz

Virginia Cobos Fritz was born in Costa Rica, but she has lived in Mexico City and since she has been in this country, she has started her career as an artist. Virginia has been in many art exhibits, including shows in: Latin America, Canada and in the United States.

Cobos Fritz has received several awards in Mexico, the United States, Italy and in Costa Rica. She is a member of the many cultural organizations in Mexico. Virginia was the Director of Fine Arts in the Sociedad Mexicana de Geografia y Estadistica.

Due to fate, she relocated to the United States and has been residing in the Land Of Enchantment for the past 14 years. Art is an integral part of Virginia Cobos Fritz's life.

Artist Statement:

"I found my inspiration for the Arts through the presence of God's love, in a sunset, with the children, the rainbow, in a poor woman, in "Las Marias", in the dead. in other word in everything."

