Mark Hines

Mark Hines Creations

You are holding a one-of-a-kind Glass art piece made by a small group of artists at Mark Hines Creations. The origins of glass forming date back to Egyptian times. Their glass has been fired in a red hot kiln & "slumped" into molds to create individual vases, bowls & chargers. Every piece has a distinct characteristic all its own.

Vessels are water tight for fresh arrangements & are not recommended for food use. Hand wash to clean.

They have combined some of their glass with different enamels to create color & excitement!

Finally, the piece is completed with a wrought iron stand for a look that will enhance your home for years to come.

Pieces are handcrafted in Prescott, AZ
