Eugene L Hunt Architect

Eugene currently maintains residences in Scottsdale and Albuquerque from which he maintains an architectural consulting practice as well as his art work.

Eugene studied architecture and art at the University of New Mexico and as a life long resident of New Mexico has found the images of the southwest and particularly route 66 to be an inspiration for art, and the subjects that are both historical and current to be of interest.

Eugene has participated in member juried shows of the New Mexico and Arizona Water Color Societies and has been accepted into those shows.
