Teri Maxwell

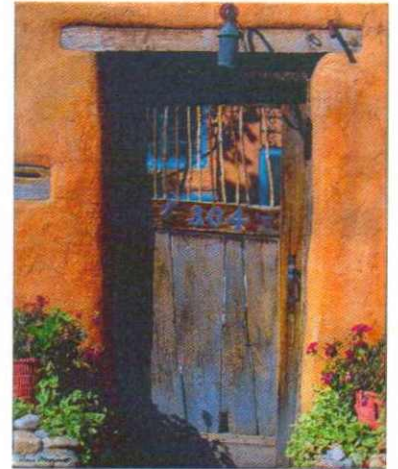

Teri Maxwell is a thirty year resident of Albuquerque, New Mexico. She developed a talent for photography while she & her family lived in Germany & traveled Europe. While in Europe, she took photography classes from local noted artists.

Teri concentrated on the beautiful sunsets & sunrises over the Alps, the vistas along the Mediterranean Sea & landscapes of various European rivers, lakes, valleys & historic buildings.

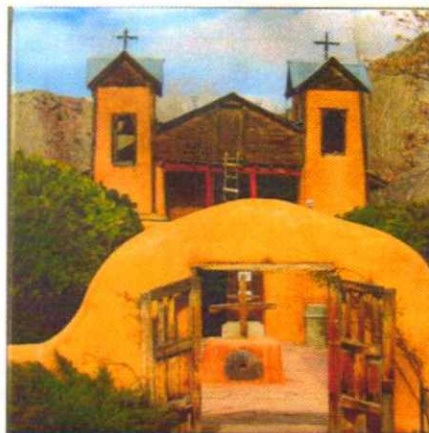

When she moved to New Mexico in 1977, she took classes through the University of New Mexico. She & her family continued to travel the Southwest, the Caribbean & Mexico. One vacation took them on a houseboat trip to beautiful Lake Powell. There, Teri fell in love with the incredible vistas & striking sunsets & sunrises that occur both on & off of the lake.

In 2007, Teri began a new chapter in her photography career, she began to work professionally. Her portfolio contains striking & innovative photos of Lake Powell, little seen or visited Anasazi ruins, missions, churches, old cars & buildings from New Mexico's historic past.
