Watercolor painting is my final stop in a lifetime of involvement in all sorts of arts and crafts.

Being a University Professor in Speech-Language Pathology was my day job which was balanced by a "fun" interest in watercolor over the past 15 years. Because of the demands of work, home and family, I've been an "off and on" again painter. Finally, since retiring and moving to New Mexico, I've been able to dedicate time to advancing my art.

Mostly, I've learned to paint in workshops. Since moving to Tijeras in 2006, I've had the good fortune of learning from JK Drummond of Albuquerque, NM in both workshops and lessons.

I am a Signature Member of the New Mexico Watercolor Society (NMWS) and participate in the Local Color Paint Group. In 2008-2009, I served at President of NMWS.

My work is represented by Weems Art Gallery, Louisiana Plaza, Albuquerque, New Mexico.
