Luke Charles Renberg

Renberg was born August 28th, 1949, in Bridgeport, CT and raised in Southport, CT. His education includes attending Famous Artist Schools in Westport, CT from 1964-1974. His interest in art started in grammar school. Luke received various awards throughout high school & while an active member of the Young Artists Association in Fairfield, CT.

With his wife, Barbara, they moved their family to Albuquerque in 1982. Vivid & true colors breathe life onto the canvas from his Balloon Fiesta Painting to his more traditional San Felipe de Neri Church and other southwest landscapes.

Barbara fashions prints of Luke's paintings onto greeting cards made of parchment paper, which can be framed, as well as the various selections of prints on hand.

Luke extends gratuitous acknowledgement to his wife, family and his mother for the encouragement which inspires him to celebrate the meaning of New Mexico's motto, The Land of Enchantment.
