

Patricia Rose

Patricia Rose, formerly a Massachusetts native, called New Mexico home after having lived & painted here for many years. Other artists have often attempted to mimic the illuminations seen in New Mexico's unique landscapes, but they rarely achieve the spectacular lighting & contrast easily recognizable in Patricia Rose's oil paintings. This was her artistic "signature" for which she gave thanks to God. To own a Patricia Rose painting is to own work by one of the finest landscape artists in the state. Her landscapes have won multiple awards, including the Governor's Award at the State Fair Fine Arts Competition & numerous purchase awards.

A single painting of hers was honored with three major awards in a single competition. Patricia also had the distinction of being the only artist that the State Fair Commission had purchased four works from for its Permanent Collection. Patricia's work can be found in private & public collections throughout the world. Prints & cards are available.
