Rebecca Swallows - Zoe de Negri

Zoë de Negri was born in England living with her astrologer mother who taught her at an early age about the existence of another reality. She was always interested in art and metaphysics and has combined the two in her life today. She is an accomplished jeweler and astrologer, also a very intuitive Tarot card reader. Her art integrates natural and supernatural themes & motifs. She has a distinctive style that's easy to recognize. She also participates in many jewelry shows around the nation and is well-known locally.

Zoë deNegri is an astounding jeweler who creates one-of-a-kind original designs over and over again. That is to say, no piece is exactly alike, but is hand-crafted and follows the flow of the unique stones and the silver. She uses a variety of intuitive stones that resonate with her and her clients. The jewelry speaks to her, tells her what to fashion out of their essence. Clients are often drawn to a particular piece because the stone will call them personally. Stones like Tibetan turquoise, ancient amber, onyx, amethyst, druzy quartz, crystal, tourmaline and so much more.
