Amanda Sharp Thompson

Amanda Sharp Thompson is a native of New Mexico, born in Los Alamos. She currently lives in the foothills of the Spanish Peaks of southern Colorado. She grew up near the village of Placitas & became inspired by the colors of the changing seasons in the Sandia Mountains. She now surrounds herself in the ambiance of similar colors & shadows that she incorporates into her paintings.

She currently meets weekly with local artists at Trinidad State Junior College to paint & experiment with new techniques under the guidance of artist Doug Holdread.

Amanda is a member of the Corazon Gallery & Trinidad Arts League, Spanish Peaks Arts Council & Raton Arts & Humanities Council. She has taught workshops in watercolor technique & frequently exhibits her paintings in southern Colorado & northern New Mexico where she has won numerous awards.

Amanda embraces her medium with the vivid colors of Colorado & her spirit & love of New Mexico.

She comes from a family of talented & accomplished artists that influenced her style & love of the arts. She has worked in various media such as intricately carved & painted wooden snakes that were displayed in the Mariposa Gallery in Old Town, Albuquerque & the Poppy Gallery in Columbia, Missouri. After moving to Colorado she began painting in watercolors under the tutelage of a Trinidad artist by the name of Joann Mathews.
