

David Moss

David was born in Lubbock, Texas and raised in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He is the youngest of five children. In Fine Art and Illustration, his preferred media has been oil and watercolor. He also works in charcoal and graphite. David is also skilled in making canvas frames for special areas.

David's work since 2000 has consisted of traditional fine art, illustration, and varied commissioned work. Work experience in art has consisted of illustrating a children's book, Santa Clone, for a local New Mexico author, Christmas card design for a greeting card company, cover art for the New Mexico Law Bulletin, and oil paintings for sale and exhibition. In his early career, David designed a T-shirt for the 1999 National Lineman's Rodeo. David's paintings have been exhibited in juried art shows for Corrales 21st Art Show and Masterworks of New Mexico.

David's education began at Queen of Heaven Catholic Grade School. From 1996-2000, he attended Saint Pius X Catholic High School. He received his undergraduate education at the University of New Mexico and graduated (cum laude) with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art Studio. David then attended the Academy of Art University in San Francisco, California where he graduated with a Masters of Fine Arts in Illustration.

David says, "I am currently focusing on landscapes, portraits, cultural lifestyles, and the figure. My career interests involve continuing my fine art work in oils, illustration work, concept art, and commissioned work. I would love to be able to teach at some point."
